

4 July 1957 Examiner page 17

TO PROBE SPACE

● THE noted British scientist Professor A. Lovell stands against the background of the world's largest radio telescope, now being completed at Jodrell Bank (Eng.) at a cost of £800,000. Professor Lovell played a big part in creating the telescope, which will be used in research into the secrets of space.