Dear Grote:

Most week-ends would be as convenient as any other, but June 25th is the plant picnic in Madison, Ind., and I'm leaving the previous day to attend it. I won't return here Sunday but go on to Detroit for a convention. The following week-end is the Fourth of July and we are planning to be away over that week-end. So the week-end of July 9th will be the first convenient time, and if that is convenient for you, I suggest we make it then.

As you can tell from the address we moved from the Crestwood house. This took place last August, and at that time we gave the Century Dictionaries to the Goodwill Industries alongwith a considerable amount of other things. The silver and the photographs are here, and the china is in storage since there wasn't room for it here. At the moment we are renting and are in the process of buying another house.

I'll wait until I see you to recount the lives and times of the S.C. Rebers', but we are all in good health. Let me know about the July 9th date.

Sincerely,

P/ S. In the meantime, I will check to see if we can obtain access to the goods in storage and let you know.
