

The New York Times Magazine

Contents

OCTOBER 2, 1948

Page

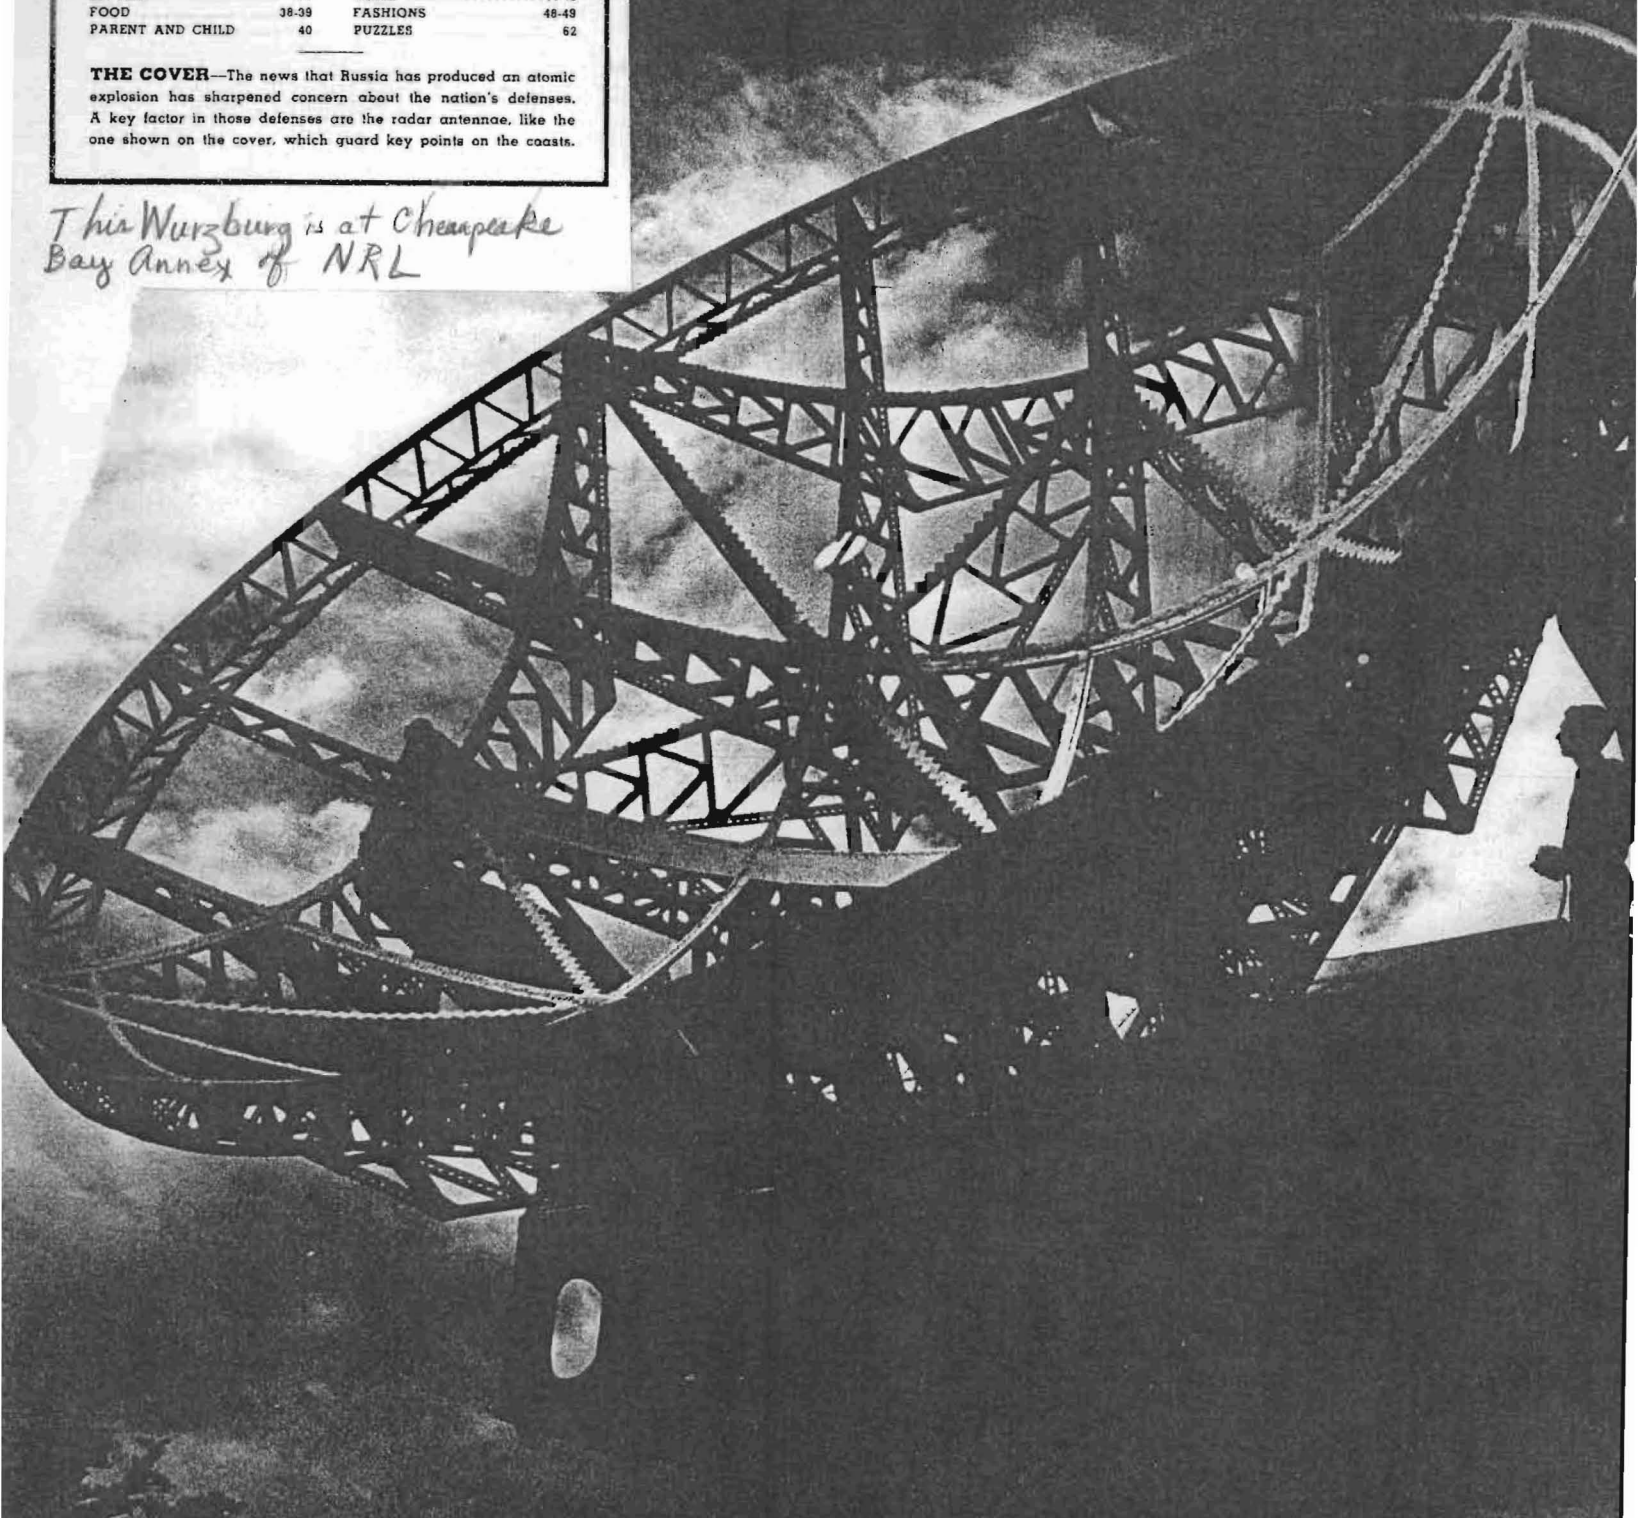

A SPIRITUAL BASIS FOR DEMOCRACY. By Sir Stafford Cripps	9
IS GERMANY STILL A MENACE? By Barbara Ward	13
TOLD BEHIND THE IRON CURTAIN. By David J. Dallin	15
IS IT ALL DONE BY MIROS?	16-17
HOES AND "SHOW-HOW" COME FIRST. By N. E. Dodd	20
SURPRISE EXPORT FROM BRITAIN: BALLET. By John Martin	22-23
TO ALEXANDER GRAHAM TRUMAN. By John Gould	24

LETTERS	4-5	HOME	44-45
FOOD	38-39	FASHIONS	48-49
PARENT AND CHILD	40	PUZZLES	62

THE COVER—The news that Russia has produced an atomic explosion has sharpened concern about the nation's defenses. A key factor in those defenses are the radar antennae, like the one shown on the cover, which guard key points on the coasts.

This Wurzburg is at Chesapeake Bay Annex of NRL

Times
SECTION 6

RADAR SCANNING THE SKY

[See Page 4]