Mr. Grote Reber
c/o Antarctic Division

Dear Grote:

You seem to have become even more well traveled than before without leaving Green Bank. I hesitate to think of the involvements and convolutions you may have gone through before you got away from that secluded spot and on to the next phase of your adventure.

I believe we have everything in order at this end, and we will sit back awaiting further word from you from time to time. I'll even make one more desperate endeavor to join you in Hawaii when you get back there. It seems much simpler than getting to Green Bank at this point.

All the gang here send their best and somewhat envious wishes.

Aloha,

Charles H. Schauer
