Dear Mr. Reber

Only quite recently I have been able to change the schedule for my journey in such a way that I could pass through Washington, and could spend there one day. I should be very happy if this could give me the opportunity of seeing your installation near Washington.

I am expecting to arrive in Washington early Friday morning, Jan. 30, and to spend the morning at the Naval Observatory. If you are in Washington that day and have any time I would be happy if you could perhaps contact me by telephone at the Naval Observatory ^{some time} during the morning.

Looking forward to seeing you again

Very sincerely yours

J. R. Oort.

Took him & Clemence to Sterling in afternoon of 30th. Oort recommended I go to Geneva for IAU meeting next August
I would write letter to Condon.
