APPALACHIAN

BOTANICAL

CLUB

WEST VIRGINIA UNIVERSITY
MORGANTOWN, WEST VIRGINIA
March 17, 1964

Dear S.A.B.C. Members:

The spring meeting of the SOUTHERN APPALACHIAN BOTANICAL CLUB will be held in conjunction with the 25th annual meeting of the Association of Southeastern Biologists, April 16-18, 1964 at Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia. Other organizations meeting at this time are, Southeastern Section of Botanical Society of America, Southern Section of the American Society of Plant Physiologists, the Regional Section of the National Association of Biology Teachers and the Southeastern Region of Beta Beta Beta, National Biological Society.

The meetings, in general, will be held with other botanical organizations, however, arrangements are being made for an informal business meeting of SABC to be held, Probably, Friday, April 17 at 1:30 p. m., Room 105, Biology Building.

On Saturday, April 18, a field trip to the granite outcrops of Mt. Arabia, is being planned. Should you desire further information contact Dr. Robert B. Platt, Co-chairman of Local Arrangements Committee, Department of Biology, Emory University, Atlanta 22, Georgia.

I wish you all the best spring season you have ever had.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Ann Bartholomew
Secretary

P. S. The March issue of CASTANEA is in press, Be sure and send our Treasurer, Dr. Roy B. Clarkson, your dues for this and past years so we can "foot the bill" when it comes.

I can also report that we have at present received 17 sets of specimens for our 21st Distribution of Southeastern Plants. If you are interested in this "get on the ball" so we can have a big set this year.
