Mr. Grote Reber

Dear Grote:

I am happy to have the whelps straightened out. I knew that I'd heard some slightly different connotation but didn't register on it until you cleared the matter up.

I can imagine you've been having lots of fun getting the volcano top packed. I'll be interested in hearing what the final disposition of the lease has been and what, if anything, you've decided to do about the heavy construction.

Hal H. Ramsey is the man who replaced Bill Woods on the West Coast, and the present office address is 600 California Street, San Francisco. I am sure you'll enjoy Hal. With your tentative schedule, you are likely to see Bill Woods before I do. I have been trying to arrange things to stop off there for quite some time but haven't made it. Bill, incidentally, is in Claremont now and I am not sure you have his current address. It is: 772 West 12th Street.

I expect to be here at least during the first week of June but may be missing for a few days after the 7th. Accordingly, I hope your schedule will stay with an approximate first of June for New York, or if it is delayed will hit after the 13th. It'll be good to see you again even though the surroundings won't be as delightful as the last.

Herewith the extra $500 which you hinted as being possibly useful.

Best wishes,

Charles H. Schauer
