Dear Robbie:

Congratulations and good luck! May the chase for gravity waves pay off.

The beauty of what has happened is, two major projects that at one time seemed to be in competition, both are underway. And science is the better for it.

On the lighter side, let me point out what a fool you are. You have succeeded in getting this major project funded. Now you have to do it. Panic has probably already set in.

Yours,

George A. Seielstad
