

Dear Mr. Reber:

You have received a card from James Stegner (postmarked October 26) which says: "My wife Sherry passed away October 23rd at 4 P.M. I am grieved but trying to resign myself."

Sorry but your instructions on the $8.50 check can't be exactly followed. The only thing apparently that can be done now is to deposit the check, make one out in the same amount to you, which I can then deposit in your savings account in Chicago. Otherwise, it would have to go to you (the check made out to you, that is) for endorsement over to someone here who could then cash it.

Jennie
