Dear Schuyler:

Thanks for your cordial letter of the 16th. I have made arrangements to fly over from Elkins on the 8th and will be staying at the Peabody Hotel. I don't know much about the place but at least the rooms have baths. Please contact me at the hotel on the morning of the 9th and we will get together there. In the mean time I'd much appreciate your inquiring about the Century Dictionary at Goodwill Industries and trying to recover same, as I'd still like to have some souvenir of the old house.

If we can't get into the storage company on Saturday, then we'll have to postpone the whole affair until some day the following week when you are free. I can come over any day.

Anticipating seeing you soon, I am

Sincerely yours,

Grote Reber

On 11th July went to see Goodwill Industries. They had no record of the Century Dictionary and offered no hope of finding it as too much time had passed.
