Dear Dick:

Thank you very much for your circular note regarding the January 10 to 13 trip to West Virginia. Everything seems to be in excellent order as far as plans are concerned. For your information I am enclosing a copy of the letter that I sent to the Avis Agency concerning the rental of an automobile for two days. If the weather should be bad on Wednesday morning January 11th I shall call you not later than 6:30 A.M. at the Roger Smith Hotel, so that we may then make our plans correspondingly. There is always a possibility that either you or I may be delayed on our way to Durbin and that one of us may not be able to make the 1:30 P.M. meeting. Shall we say that if only one of us is there we wait around until 2:00 P.M., but that at that time the one who is in Durbin proceeds toward Greenbank and Arbervale. We might try to have as our next meeting place Greenbank at 3:30 P.M., but if for some reason or other that arrangement falls through as well, then we might as well head for the Tygart Hotel in Elkins and meet there shortly before dinner. It seems as though with this sort of an arrangement there will be a minimum of waiting around for either of us.

With best wishes for the New Year,

Very sincerely yours,

Bart J. Bok
