CHARLES H. SCHAUER
VICE PRESIDENT and SECRETARY

October 7, 1958

Mr. Grote Reber
1020 East Garner Street
Wheaton, Illinois

Dear Mr. Reber:

Mr. Schauer is in Canada this week, but he called this afternoon and I told him of your expected arrival in New York next Tuesday. He expects to return sometime over the week-end.

We have made a reservation for you at the Belmont Plaza, beginning Tuesday, October 14.

Mr. Schauer asked me to let you know that the Board members and others who will be attending the luncheon on Tuesday will spend the afternoon on a visit to a recently installed fly ash precipitator at Consolidated Edison in Astoria. You may either go along if you are interested or return to the city in the afternoon. The luncheon will be held at Thwaites on City Island; transportation for the group is being arranged from the Chrysler Building after the morning business session.

Sincerely yours,

Jennie Ewanoski
Secretary to Mr. Schauer
