Dear Hal:

Just a note to let you know that I've arrived here safely after stopping a few days in Spokane. While there I had an opportunity to see Grand Coulee dam and the environs. All the many square miles of lava flows in eastern Washington were something new to me. I was told that there is even more bare land south of there in Oregon.

Mr. Warren Green turned out to be quite an interesting sort of fellow with a responsible job at the telephone company. His efforts in the line of old radio gear seem the most intelligent of any I've seen.

Many thanks for taking me around and showing me the sights. Please remember me to your wife and family.

Best regards,

Grote Reber
