Dear Grote:

I was very happy to receive your note of March 24. Your brief highlighting of the current situation is interesting and gratifying. We will look forward to the final results when they get into print.

If I turn up anything that sounds exciting or interesting, I'll get word off to you immediately. Meantime, if you are in need of anything further from our end of the world, don't hesitate to yell. I can't help wondering how your finances are doing and want to assure you that there is more where the last came from.

Continuing best wishes,

Charles H. Schauer
